

MedUche Terms of Use

Last updated: 29 June 2026

By accessing or using MedUche, you agree to these Terms. If you do not agree, do not use the platform.

1. Professional Use Only

MedUche is for qualified healthcare professionals and authorised users only. We may verify your credentials and may refuse, suspend, or terminate access at our discretion.

2. Clinical Responsibility

MedUche facilitates professional collaboration. All information, opinions, AI-generated summaries, and specialist responses on the platform are for informational purposes only and do not constitute clinical advice.

The treating clinician remains solely responsible for all patient care, diagnosis, treatment decisions, and compliance with applicable laws and professional standards.

3. Intellectual Property

All rights in MedUche — including its software, design, workflows, AI-assisted processes, educational content, trademarks, and branding — belong exclusively to MedUche Ltd. You must not:

- Copy, reproduce, distribute, sell, or exploit any part of the platform
- Reverse engineer, scrape, or attempt to replicate MedUche's technology, workflows, or business model
- Use MedUche content to build a competing product or service

4. Your Content

You retain ownership of content you submit. By submitting content, you grant MedUche a worldwide, non-exclusive licence to host, process, and use that content to operate, improve, and develop the platform. You confirm you have the right to submit everything you upload.

5. Acceptable Use

You must not:

- Upload unlawful, misleading, or harmful content
- Share patient-identifiable information without proper authority and anonymisation
- Attempt unauthorised access to the platform or any connected system
- Interfere with platform security or operations

6. Disclaimer

The platform is provided "as is" and "as available." To the fullest extent permitted by law, MedUche disclaims all warranties as to availability, accuracy, reliability, or fitness for any particular purpose.

7. Limitation of Liability

To the maximum extent permitted by law, MedUche shall not be liable for any indirect, incidental, consequential, clinical, professional, financial, or business losses arising from use of — or inability to use — the platform.

Nothing in these Terms limits liability for death or personal injury caused by negligence, fraud, or any other liability that cannot be excluded under English law.

8. Suspension and Termination

We may suspend or terminate your access at any time if we reasonably believe these Terms have been breached, or where necessary to protect the platform, other users, patients, or MedUche's interests.

9. Changes

We may update these Terms from time to time. We will post the updated version with a revised date. Continued use of MedUche after an update constitutes acceptance of the revised Terms.

10. Governing Law

These Terms are governed by the laws of England and Wales. Any disputes shall be subject to the exclusive jurisdiction of the courts of England and Wales.
